Hyderabad and Delhi Government Mega Cities, on the basis of 1991 census;

(b) if so, the criteria adopted for such a move;

(c) the details of other cities in the country which fulfil that criteria and are yet to be declared as Mega Cities;

(d) whether there is any proposal to declare Ahmedabad also as a Megacity; and

(e) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN AFFAIRS & EMPLOYMENT (DR. U. VENATESWARLU): (a) The Government have not declared Madras, Mumbai, Bangalore, Hyderabad and Delhi as Mega Cities on the basis of 1991 census. However, under the Centrally Sponsored Scheme of Infrastructure Development in Mega Cities, Mumbai, Madras, Bangalore, Hyderabad and Calcutta have been included for receipt of Central assistance.

(b) The criterion for inclusion of cities under the Mega City Scheme is that the urban agglomeration of the city concerned should have a population of at least four million as per 1991 census.

(c) Delhi fulfils the criterion in (b) above. However, Delhi is not included under the Mega City Scheme.

(d) No, Sir.

(e) The population of Ahmedabad urban agglomeration being 3.31 million as per 1991 census, Ahmedabad does not qualify for inclusion under the Mega City Scheme.
